

VCU

ACE-IT in College Student Learning Outcomes

Career Development

- Every ACE-IT in College student will engage in campus paid employment.
- Every ACE-IT in College student will participate in an internship in the final semester of the program.
- All ACE-IT in College students will develop skills required for interviewing and/or future employment after completing the required public speaking course and complete semester career development tasks.
- All ACE-IT in College students will take part in career development activities.

Academic

- ACE-IT in College students will receive a rating of Satisfactory Progress or above in each course to be able to progress through the program.
- All ACE-IT in College students will earn 20-24 credits.
- Every ACE-IT in College student will complete an approved academic plan of study based on program requirements.
- Every ACE-IT in College student will attend assessment and evaluation meetings.

Independent Living

- Each ACE-IT in College student will lead their semester team meetings.
- Each ACE-IT in College student will be able to identify resources and services on VCU campuses after taking UNIV 101.
- All ACE-IT in College students will participate in their person-centered planning in which they will develop strategies and supports to be successful and independent in college.
- All ACE-IT in College students will work with program provided supports, including education and job coaches.

Social

- Each ACE-IT in College student will be able to identify resources and services on VCU campuses after taking UNIV 101.
- Each ACE-IT in College student will obtain a VCU issued identification card and use their VCU card to access buildings and events on campus.
- All ACE-IT in College students will participate in the New Student Orientation sessions during their enrollment summer.

Multiple

- Every ACE-IT in College student will develop and implement career, academic, and campus engagement goals with the help of their advisor and other ACE-IT program staff.
- Every ACE-IT in College student will develop and implement at least one campus engagement, career, and academic goal.